MEDICINAL.

"I lost courage and thought I would never regain my health." "Three years of delicate health trying doctors' prescriptions and patent medicines" without benefit might well sap the courage of any woman. And yet Mrs. Bryant proved that the question of the cure of womanly disease is only a question of using the right remedy. A few doses of 'Favorite Prescription' restored her courage and revived her hope, because she could see "a decided change from the first." Three months' use of the medicine restored her to perfect health. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures irregularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. Mrs. Sarah Bryant, President of Memphis Social Science Club, residing at 271 Addison Ave., Memphis, Tenn., writes: "I suffered with delicate health for three years, trying doctors' prescriptions and patent medicines until I lost courage and thought I would never regain my health; but a few doses of your 'Favorite Prescription' made me change my mind. Could see a decided change from the first, so I kept on taking it for three months faithfully and am now in perfect health."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

REIGN OF TERROR.

Chicago has at last awakened to the fact that human life is the cheapest commodity within its borders. Officials reluctantly admit that Constantinople, Algiers, border cities of the southwest and even Macedonia afford more protection to peaceful citizens than the second city in the United States. Within the last 60 days 114 persons have been robbed and 8 persons murdered by robbers. In all the other cases there was violence—the victims were not only robbed but beaten. Aside from this appalling record there were hundreds of minor cases of robbery not reported to the police.

The wanton murders by the carban bandits and their subsequent spectacular capture have awakened the conscience of Chicago. Following closely upon these stirring events was the cruel murder of James Fullenwider, a prominent attorney, who was shot down in cold blood while running away from 100 footpads. These murderers have not yet been captured—perhaps never will be.

The reign of crime has reached such a stage that sorely afflicted portions of the city are talking of vigilance committees. Mass-meetings were held yesterday in Englewood and Hyde Park to form plans for vigorous warfare on the footpads, thugs and murderers. The chief of police has formed "flying squadrons" of young, fearless officers, whose duty it is to swoop down suddenly upon portions of the city haunted by the murderous gangs and drag them to the station. This plan works well for one raid. After that the saloonkeepers and managers of dives telephone to other resorts and the thieves and thugs scatter to points of safety.

To a stranger, Chicago must seem like a desperate frontier post. Men go armed and the windows of residences are barred like jails. This is an absolute necessity, learned through bitter experience. There is undoubtedly a burglar's trust, and no house escapes a visit unless it is securely barred or guarded by watchmen. In some cases one house has been robbed as many as 15 times within three years.

Women live in constant terror of robbery and assault. The Chicago thief is not content to despoil his victim, but he must maim or kill in addition. It avails nothing to give up one's valuables cheerfully. The sandbag, or knife or revolver will be used just the same, the theory of the robber being that then an unconscious victim will tell no tales.

It is agreed that the parole system and indeterminate sentence do more than all other things to keep Chicago infested with thugs. Under the parole system a thug can get out of prison almost on the return train. No "useful" man is permitted to waste his time in jail. He is needed for street work and his friends see that he gets out, if by any miracle the law is able to convict him.

BISHOP CRITICIZES PRIEST.—Rev. John D. Boland, pastor of St. Pius' Church, Baltimore, Md., was the principal speaker at the annual memorial exercises of the Elks in Buffalo yesterday afternoon. His attendance did not meet with the approval of Right Rev. Bishop P. A. Ludden, bishop of Syracuse. In speaking of the affair the Bishop said: "Yes, Rev. John D. Boland did call on me. His welcome by me was neither glad nor cheery. I assume he attended at mass in Buffalo yesterday, even if he did not celebrate mass. But his engagement there was not that of a Catholic priest, but as Brother Boland of the Elks, who were holding a sort of requiem, a parody on requiem services read for deceased Catholics. The ceremony took place in a darkened house with lighted candles, and the brothers were clad in dark clothing and white neckties. Assuming that the actors in the burlesque ritual or ceremony were solemn and sincere, what benefit did they expect to accrue from it to the departed souls of the brethren? None of them believe in the doctrine of purgatory, if any of them believe in hell. The souls, then, of the brethren must have taken direct flight to heaven. Does Brother Boland think that his oratorical effort will interest them there? And Brother Boland ought not to have come all the way from Baltimore to take part in the exercises given in Buffalo yesterday. If, as I assume, he is a priest in good standing, I beg to call his attention to Tit. VIII, cap. 3, P. L. De societatis inonestis" of the Third Council of Baltimore."

BRYAN TAKES APPEAL.—Counsel for William J. Bryan, executor of the will of the late Philo S. Bennett, filed an appeal in the Superior Court in New Haven, Conn., yesterday from the decision of Probate Judge Cleveland, by which the sealed letter giving $50,000 to Mr. Bryan and his family was excluded from probate. It will come up for a hearing at the January term of the Superior Court, together with the appeal already filed by counsel for Mrs. Bennett, the widow. The latter appeal is from the decision of Judge Cleveland admitting to probate the sessions of the will naming Mr. Bryan as executor, and giving him funds in trust for college scholarships.

MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 177 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the yellow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

"For four years I suffered with torpid liver until my skin looked yellow and dull. I then found my kidneys were affected and had severe pains across my back, and I felt that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. Five choice bottles of Wine of Cardui will cure you. Secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui! All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Theodor's Black-Draught.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.
